Dear colleague,

We are very pleased to invite you to the International Symposium Automated Systems and Technologies. It will be held 25-26 May 2015, in St. Petersburg, Russia at the St. Petersburg State Polytechnic University. This symposium continues the tradition of annual symposiums and seminars held at the St. Petersburg State Polytechnic University since 2008, in partnership with leading European universities.

All participants will be able to take part in a symposium with a first rate Scientific Programme, covered topics of which are listed below:

- Automated Control Theory and Systems
- Intelligent Control and Monitoring Systems
- Control Systems, Robotics and Mechatronics
- Distributed Control Systems and Networks
- Cognitive Robots and Multi-Robot Systems
- Agents and Multiagent Control Systems
- Power Plant Automation
- Intelligent Transportation and Logistics
- Industrial Automation Systems
- Automated Manufacturing Systems
- Laser Technologies and Biomedicine
- Micro Production Technologies

30 March 2015 - extended deadline for submission of abstracts. Please, visit us: <http://cst.icc.spbstu.ru/ast>.

In the framework of the Symposium there will be organised International Summer Workshop for students Advanced Production Systems and Technologies which will be held on 25-29 May 2015.

Please, visit workshop webpage: <http://cst.icc.spbstu.ru/apst>.

We are looking forward to seeing you in May 2015!

Sincerely,
